1) Thesis Statement: Clear and focused thesis

Not Applicable	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Exemplary
A thesis is not necessary for this submission.	The thesis does not appear to be relevant, is not clearly defined, or lacks focus.	The thesis statement is present and clear. The focal point is not consistently maintained throughout the paper.	The thesis states the position, premise, or hypothesis, and is the focal point of the paper for the most part.	The thesis clearly and concisely states the position, premise, or hypothesis and is consistently the focal point throughout the paper.

Thesis statement target feedback:

Your thesis is excellent. You've clearly define your topic and introduce the three main ideas that a reader should expect to read about throughout the essay. Great work!

2) Developing Ideas: Well-developed and logical ideas

Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Exemplary
Shows some thinking and reasoning but most ideas are underdeveloped.	Content indicates thinking and reasoning applied with original thought on a few ideas.	Content indicates original thinking and develops ideas with sufficient and firm evidence.	Content indicates synthesis of ideas, in-depth analysis and evidences original thought and support for the topic.

Developing ideas target feedback:

You do a great job including evidence to support your ideas and there is clear thought throughout the essay. However, there are times where direct evidence could be used to help support the ideas and/or more analysis could be integrated to ensure that a connection to the thesis is clear and the point is fully argued and explained.

3) Essay Structure: Organization and paragraphing

Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Exemplary
Writing lacks logical organization. It shows some coherence but ideas lack unity.	Writing is coherent and logically organized. Some points remain misplaced and stray from the topic. Transitions evident but not used throughout essay.	Writing is coherent and logically organized with transitions used between ideas and paragraphs to create coherence. Overall unity of ideas is present.	Writing shows high degree of attention to logic and reasoning of points. Unity clearly leads the reader to the conclusion and stirs thought regarding the topic.

Essay structure target feedback:

You ideas are organized according to your thesis, which is wonderful. There are times, however, where it is unclear the purpose of some of the paragraphs and/or paragraph structure wasn't necessarily followed. Be sure to include the main elements of a body paragraph in each paragraph 1. Topic sentence 2. Context/ background for evidence 3. Evidence 4. Analysis/ Reasoning 5. Concluding sentence that can be used to transition to the next paragraph Also, be sure to add in transitions between your paragraphs. The essay is set up well, but adding in transitional phrases will help to link the ideas together, which will improve the flow of the essay itself.

4) Research/Citation: Proper use of sources

Not Applicable	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Exemplary
Citations were not necessary for this submission.	Sources do not follow a documentation style (APA, MLA, Turabian, Chicago, etc.) and are not listed and/or work does not appear original because citations are not clear.	Sources meet the minimum requirements for documentation following standard practices of the field (APA, MLA, Turabian, Chicago, etc.). Work appears to be original but is not always cited properly.	Most sources are documented following standard practices of the field (APA, MLA, Turabian, Chicago, etc.). Work appears to be original and appropriately cited.	All sources are documented and formatted following standard practices of the field (APA, MLA, Turabian, Chicago, etc.). Work appears to be original and appropriately cited.

Research/Citation target feedback:

Your APA looks appropriate and is mostly completed correctly. Just make sure to double check the formatting on your reference page to ensure that you're indenting each source accordingly.

5) Grammar/Mechanics: Spelling, Grammar, Punctuation

Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Exemplary
Errors in grammar and usage are very noticeable, frequent, and affect meaning. Lack of punctuation, or numerous errors in punctuation affect the readability of the text.	Problems with grammar and usage are not serious enough to distort the meaning but may not be correct or accurately applied all the time. Punctuation is random, and only the easiest rules show awareness of correct use.	Grammar and usage are good but do not always add to the style of the writing. Punctuation is somewhat accurate, and shows a good command for readability, but not creativity.	Grammar and usage are always correct and enhance the writing clarity and style. The punctuation is accurate, even creative, and guides the reader through the text easily.

Grammar/Mechanics target feedback:

There were not glaring errors with regards to spelling, grammar, and mechanics. It is clear that you reread the essay and took exceptional care with regards to grammar. Great work!

Suggested revisions:

Overall, you have a wonderful start and base to your essay. You should focus your revisions on adjusting your paragraphs to follow along with a more traditional paragraph structure as well as establishing clearer transitions between each paragraph to help the overall flow and sound of the essay itself. Happy revising!
